It is presumed that the question raised in this case relates to the succession to the Stridhan of a Hindu married woman. If so, the succession varies (a) according as she was married in an approved or unapproved form, (b) according to the source from which the stridhan came and (c) according to the school the parties belong i.e. Mithila, Mayukh Dayabhag, Mitakshara or Benares School. The details of the case would be necessary to enable the R.L.A. to express his opinion on the point of succession.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. PSB9/3/16/5, dated the 20th September 1952 on the above subject, I have the honour to state that under the existing law the balance of the corpus, on the death of the widow, will pass to here husband's Sapindas, Samanodakas and Bandhus (see Mulla's Hindu Law page 129, Tenth edition).

Yours faithfully,

Sd/- P.M. LAD,

Remembrancer of Legal Affairs.

L.D.R.I. No. 30362 dt. 16-12-1932.

Submitted with reference to R.H.D. note dated 11-12-1952.

One Mrs. Padma Bulchand, and Aya in the Nari Seva Sadan died on 16-3-1952 leaving Rs. 200/-, her savings from her pay with the cook Shri Lekumal of the Sadan. The cook surrendered the amount to the officer in charge of the Nari Seva Sadan. For returning the amount to the legal heir efforts were made to trace the heir but nobody except here sister Mrs. Vassi W/o Hariram has come forwardmd as a claimant. Mrs. Vassi is also an inmate of the Sadan. She incurred the expenditure on account of the funeral expenses for the deceased Mrs. Padma. The Chairman of the Executive Committee for the Welfare of the Displayed Women solicits Government orders whether the amount of Rs. 200/- can be made over to Mrs. Vassi. R.H.D. has no objection to the amount of Rs. 200/- being made over to Mrs. Vassi on the analogy of Financial Rule 52(b) provided she agrees to (i) execute an indemnity bond and (ii) give an affidavit that there is no other legal heir of the deceased except hereself. The R.L.A's requested to advise.

Seen and returned.

There would be no objection to taking action as proposed in para 3 of the Rehabilitation Dept. office note.
